ROMANCE: "Satin ruffles, millifloras, chiffon and soft, silky layers skinned collections like a light summer breeze," says Figure. With simple lines and chalky tones, it's the personification of modern pretty. Style tips for this trend include wearing pretty sleeves to add interest to simple dress shapes, twists of tulle to add drama, and keeping your hair and make-up contemporary while avoiding too much jewellery or other adornments. It's the perfect look for a summer of love.

"Punctuating the collections like a brilliant cushioned mesh, red showed up intermittently, glinting through a mainly muted palette," says Figure. So add a little to your wardrobe for winter, whether you top your mood with a pillar box red coat or go sexy lady in a wrap dress by Diane Von Furstenberg - or maybe try a pair of red shoes to dance your way through the winter months.
